8.2 "PUEBLOS MÁGICOS"

VIESCA, COAHUILA.

Located in the Laguna Region of Coahuila, 238 kilometers from the state capital. It borders the municipalities of Parras, Torreón, Matamoros and San Pedro, as well as the state of Zacatecas.

In 1899, La Estrella textile factory, the oldest in Mexico, was established.

Birthplace of distinguished characters such as Francisco I. Madero, Andrés S. Viesca and Gustavo A. Madero.

Gifted with stunning scenery in the middle of the desert and recognized as the place where the history of the lagoon of Coahuila began, this Pueblo Mágico is a small town that impresses with natural beauty, traditions and folklore.

Declared a preservation area, the Bilbao Dunes, with more than 21,000 hectares of extension, seduce ecotourism lovers who enjoy the desert scenery with their thin and fine golden sand, a natural sanctuary for endemic species and the setting for many national and international films.

A place of great religiosity Viesca has historic buildings and offers in celebrations the fantastic pork roast with their seven soups, as well as a delicious traditional bakery that has the best representation in the "mamones", an incomparable pink bread rolls.

Gastronomy

- Mamones, baked bread
- Burnt milks, goat's milk candies, walnut
- Empanadas stuffed with regional fruit jams
- Date candies with walnuts
- Empanadas, pie, cake, tamales, atole, popsicles, aguas frescas and date liqueur
- Flour and corn Gorditas stuffed with various stews
- Gorditas de cocedor de adobe stuffed with beans and chicharrón (pork rinds)
- Tamales
- Hand-embroidered napkins, aprons, blouses, blouses and other hand-embroidered items
- Reliquia (roast with 7 types of soup)
- Fritada de Cabrito (fried goat)
- Goat barbecue

Main Tourist Attractions

Bilbao Dunes: These impressive sand valleys expand over 2 kilometers like small hills. These dunes, whose waves and colors change depending on the time of the day, are owned by the ejido and are equipped with basic infrastructure. The Bilbao Dunes are must for those who come to Viesca.

The Ex Hacienda de Hornos and the Chapel of Santa Ana: In this beautiful corner of the municipality of Viesca was for a long time the economic power of the region, it was the residence of Leonardo Zuloaga Olivares, owner of the land where between 1850 and 1851 the current city of Torreón, Coahuila was founded. The Chapel of Santa Ana, located next to the Hacienda, was built in 1767 and reopened on April 10, 2010, after being restored by the Patronage "Adopt a Work of Art" through INAH. It is recommended to contact the local guide in advance in order to visit the
